

NELSON SAUVIN BIO

Origin: New-Zealand

Nelson Sauvvin was developed by the New Zealand Institute for Plant and Food Research as part of the New Hop Variety Development Programme, and was released in 2000.

It was created from New Zealand

Smoothcone and a selected male.

It is an excellent all-rounder, capable of producing both punchy Ales and subtle, bitter Lagers.

Its name comes from the Sauvignon Blanc aromas that it develops and which are very specific to it.
