

PACIFIC GEM™

This hop was developed by the New Zealand Hop Breeding programme and released in 1987.

It is one of the hops with high alpha acid and cohumulone levels that make it a great Bittering! As a late addition, it also provides interesting aromas for those seeking red berry flavours.

TYPE OF HOPS

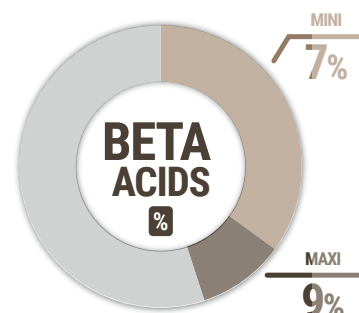

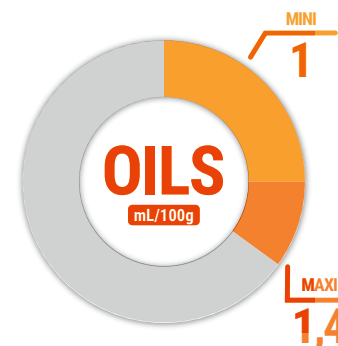

Bittering

FORM

Pellets

ORIGIN

New Zealand

ACIDS

Alpha: 13 - 18%
Beta: 7 - 9%
Cohumulone: 37 - 40%

CUMULATIVE OILS

1 - 1.4ml/100g

POSSIBLE SUBSTITUTES

Cluster, Columbus, Fuggle

USE

Pale Ale, IPA, Brown Ale, English Ale

CHARACTERISTICS

Red fruits, blackberries, spices

WWW.HOPSTORE.FR